ANCIENT EGYPTIAN HIEROGLYPHS NEW

For many centuries Egyptian hieroglyphs intrigued both Egyptologists and the general public alike. What did the enigmatic symbols mean? Were they writing or were they purely decorative? With the discovery of the Rosetta Stone in 1799, the puzzle was more-or-less solved within 25 years. Over four weeks, you will be introduced to some of the basic principles of the hieroglyphic script. You will also learn about the role of writing in ancient Egyptian society, and revisit the story of the script's decipherment.

AN INTRODUCTION TO ROMAN HISTORY

In this course you will look at the 3 periods: Rome Under the 7 Kings, Rome Under the Republic and Rome Under the Empire. It examines the role played by key personalities such as Hannibal, Spartacus, Julius Caesar and the emperors as well as the social causes behind the main events. Finally, it analyses the overwhelming influence Roman society has had on our own.

DAILY LIFE IN ANCIENT ROME

This course examines the Roman day and living conditions for the different classes in Roman society. In addition to the ruling class, it also includes soldiers, slaves, freedmen, prostitutes, the poor and gladiators. These are the "forgotten Romans", that bottom 95% of the population who aren't discussed in the Historical Records. Learn about what they ate, family life and their attitudes towards birth and children, death and retirement. No knowledge of Ancient Rome is assumed.

BIG QUESTIONS AND GREAT THINKERS

If you ponder over big philosophical questions such as - Is there any meaning in our existence? Is our life pre-determined? What is the essence of human mind? What kind of life is a valuable life? How can we determine what is right and what is wrong? What ideas should govern good society? etc. - this course is for you. In this course we will explore possible answers to such questions, using ideas of great thinkers of the West and the East.
